ATTRACTIONS ROME, ITALY

Rome, the capital of Italy, is one of the world's most iconic cities, seamlessly blending ancient history with vibrant modern life. Known as the Eternal City, it boasts a legacy spanning over 2,500 years, reflected in landmarks like the Colosseum, Roman Forum, and Pantheon, while its streets are adorned with elegant piazzas and fountains such as the Trevi Fountain. Art and culture thrive throughout the city, with churches displaying masterpieces by artists like Michelangelo and Gian Lorenzo Bernini, and within the city lies Vatican City, home to St. Peter's Basilica, the Sistine Chapel, and the Vatican Museums, attracting millions each year. Cultural life continues with performances at venues like Teatro dell'Opera di Roma, while the city's culinary scene delights visitors with classics such as pasta carbonara, cacio e pepe, and fresh gelato, all enjoyed alongside lively markets, stylish boutiques, and charming cafés that make Rome a timeless and inspiring destination.
