ATTRACTIONS ROME, ITALY

Rome, the capital of Italy, is one of the world's most iconic cities, blending ancient history with vibrant modern life. Known as the Eternal City, it boasts a legacy spanning over 2,500 years, reflected in landmarks like the Colosseum, Roman Forum, and Pantheon. Its streets are filled with historic piazzas, elegant architecture, and fountains such as the Trevi Fountain. Art and culture thrive in Rome, with churches showcasing masterpieces by renowned artists like Michelangelo and Gian Lorenzo Bernini. Within the city lies Vatican City, home to St. Peter's Basilica, the Sistine Chapel, and the Vatican Museums, drawing millions of visitors each year. Cultural life continues through performances at venues such as Teatro dell'Opera di Roma.

Rome is also a culinary delight, famous for dishes like pasta carbonara, cacio e pepe, and fresh gelato. With lively markets, stylish boutiques, and charming cafés, the city beautifully blends tradition with modern sophistication, making it a timeless and inspiring destination.
